Dearest Aunt Imogene,

Thank you very much for the money gift you sent to Noah earlier this year. Please accept our sincerest apologies for not responding sooner, but we've discovered that life with a baby, although filled with happiness and comfort, can be quite overwhelming. Noah will be two years old this coming November and we've cherished everyday with him. As a family, we like to go on walks through the woods and down to the park to watch the tennis players and baseball games. Noah absolutely loves to play with balls and we're certain he's going to be a baseball player one day. Matt is working as a computer programmer for a small advertising company just outside of Detroit and Katie is at the University of Michigan in cancer research. We're very happy and comfortable in Ann Arbor and feel that every day is a blessing. We hope all is well with you and your family and we look forward to seeing you at the next family reunion.

Sincerely,

Matt, Katie and Noah Sebolt
